The first forum of mayoral candidates in La Crosse at the Moose lodge on the southside this week. Among the questions answered by the eight candidates in attendance: How to get the city council to do what you want them to do. It's like this, says Rich Smith

The candidates also tackled issues on crime, fire department funding, business incentives and several others in the two hour forum sponsored by the city-county Tavern League.