

The man accused of robbing a La Crosse business and plotting a similar crime in Onalaska pleads 'not guilty'...

A trial will be scheduled for Timothy Wantoch (WAHN-tock), who was arrested while trying to run from a shopping center on Highway 35.

In court today, La Crosse police investigator Jake Jansky refers to a video of a September Payday Loans holdup, showing that robber using items that Wantoch had on him in Onalaska:

Police say Wantoch drew attention to himself by wearing dark glasses and acting suspiciously near a loan store in Onalaska.
