

The debate between the two candidates vying for the vacant 95th Assembly District seat from 7-8 p.m. tonight will be cablecast and webcast live. The debate, happening at UW-La Crosse's Centennial Hall, will be on Charter Cable Access Channel 96 analog, 989 digital.

Candidates Jill Billings, a Democrat, and Dave Drewes, a Republican, will debate at the Hall of Nations, Centennial Hall, at UW-L. The candidates are running for the seat formerly held by State Senator Jennifer Shilling.

The event is free and open to the public. It's being sponsored by the UW-L Joint Legislative Committee, Political Science Department and Student Association.
