

Bomb Threat

Monday, 15 March 2010 15:20

A bomb threat today at Black River Falls High School. The principal reported a threat written on a school wall yesterday regarding a bomb that was supposed to go off in the school today. A bomb dog was brought in and police took a number of precautions including searches, security checkpoints for students and the school was on lockdown status. No evidence of a bomb was located inside the school. The search is on for whoever made the threat.
