

La Crosse Deadly Crashes Spike in 2011

Wednesday, 04 January 2012 12:41

Anything but quiet on La Crosse county roads for 2011. Final DOT tally of deadly accidents in the county for the year shows a significant spike for La Crosse, 17 total. That's a jump from 6 fatal crashes the year before. Five year average for the county in a year's time is just eight fatalities. Among the deadly accidents were two that involved pedestrians. Trempealeau county also saw a jump in deadly crashes, from 3 in 2010 to 8 last year. Vernon county also increased but by a less significant amount. Monroe county saw a decrease in road fatalities.
