

Fence Removed in Front of Transit Center

Tuesday, 16 March 2010 10:56

The commute just got a little easier for people in La Crosse. Fencing that's been a fixture downtown in front of the city's new transit center on third street has been removed. Finally widening southbound lanes after months of a bottleneck. The transit center is supposed to see buses coming through sometime this spring.