

Man Shot By Police After County Stabbing

Tuesday, 30 March 2010 07:15

A stabbing, a shooting and a fire, all at the same home near West Salem. Police were called to the home on Hidden Valley Road in the town of Hamilton just after nine last night. When police got there, they found the garage on fire. A man armed with a knife came charging at police when they responded. He was shot, reportedly three times in the chest, by officers. He was medlinked to a La Crosse hospital. A woman was treated for stab wounds. No word this morning on the condition of either the suspect or the victim, and no names have been released yet.
