

OSHA calls it a lack of commitment to workers' safety and health and has cited Duraframe Dipnet of Viola with 20 safety violations including three repeat at the net manufacturer's facility. Penalties total over $71 thousand following OSHA's inspection. Similar violations were cited in 2009.

DURAFRAME DIPNET®

Sixteen serious violations involve failing to maintain sanitary conditions in walkways, guard machinery and provide hazard communication training. The violations also include various electrical and respiratory hazards, including the lack of a written respiratory protection program.