

New TIF Decision for Old Trane Site

Monday, 08 October 2012 05:53

Right now, a big empty lot. In the future: homes? Strip malls? Shops? Could be the destiny for a 12 acre site on George street in La Crosse near the old La Crosse Footwear building. To get there from here: Probably another city TIF district

City planner Larry Kirch. City council this week votes on rezoning the big swath of land in order to get the TIF development there moving along.
