

No garbage lids, no problem. The La Crosse city council has backed off new requirements that all garbage containers have lids. City council president Audrey Kader's idea. She says the lid mandate is too onerous and forces people to buy new garbage cans when their lids blow away. Additionally, the city will likely be moving to automated pick-up in a little over a year. Rendering all current garbage cans obsolete.