

On his way back from campaigning near Prarie Du Chien last weekend, Senate candidate, Bill Feehan, noticed that every field campaign sign he had up...was either cut down or destroyed. His reaction?

\(Click for Audio\)

Feehan says this is not the first time this has happened. He says they have had to replace several other field signs and yard signs that were either taken from yards or destroyed.