

The September 11th attacks of 2001 are becoming an issue in the 2012 Senate race in Wisconsin.

Republican Tommy Thompson has a new ad criticizing Democrat Tammy Baldwin for opposing a resolution honoring the victims of the 9-11 attack. Thompson defended the ad while speaking to reporters in Onalaska.

Baldwin has said she voted against that bill six years ago because it included language favoring the Patriot Act. Thompson says Baldwin should not have opposed the Patriot Act, either.
