

Jail Tries To Ease Overcrowding

Wednesday, 24 October 2012 10:33

Cold winter month's are coming. And for those that use the jail as a place to live until the Spring.....well you better start looking for other alternatives. That from County Sheriff, Steve Helgeson.

\(Click for Audio\)

Helgeson says the jail is over capacity as it is and they will not open a new pod just for people who commit crimes for a place to stay. The pod conversation will be brought up by the county board next month.