

Kids Hurt In Crash

Tuesday, 06 November 2012 10:48

Two vehicles collided near Tomah yesterday, sending several kids to the hospital. Just before 5 last night on Highway 21 between Sparta and Tomah, 31 year old Kara Lorenz of Rural Tomah was west bound on Hwy 21 when she she was about to make a left hand turn.

47 year old Richard Johnson of LaCrosse, also driving west bound in a Post Office truck, did not see Lorenz slow down and hit the back of her car.

Two children in the Lorenz vehicle were injured. Tucker Lorenz age one and Max Lorenz age 3 were transported by Tomah Ambulance to Tomah Memorial hospital with non-life threatening injuries. No injuries to the drivers.
