

The UW-L Eagles hope to see you tomorrow at the last home game of the season. UW-L will celebrate veterans day and honor our country's veterans, and local service members who have been severely injured in action...U.S. Army 2nd Lt., and past UW-L football player, Jason Church and Marine Corporal Gauge Griffin. UW-L Athletic Director, Josh Whitman, says there's more for the vet's this weekend besides the football game.

\(Click for Audio\)

All Veterans will receive two free vouchers redeemable for two free tickets at the Veterans Memorial Stadium Ticket Office tomorrow for the game against Whitewater. You can get the tickets at our studios, all Festival Foods locations, VFW legion posts in the area, the Military Recruiting Center and at Fort McCoy.