

Why ban someone from sending you nasty texts or bad messages via social media. That's what the state ACLU asked right after Vernon County made sending annoying and harassing electronic communications illegal .

\(Click for Audio\)

Stacy Harbaugh stressed that there is a difference that needs to be respected between fighting words and free speech, between making threats and expressing an opinion, no matter how obnoxious it may be. She says the ACLU will be watching over the county and the ordinance.