

Hunter Being Asked To Look For Missing Man

Thursday, 15 November 2012 12:12

The La Crosse County Sheriff's Department is asking hunters who are out in the woods this weekend, to be on the look out for a missing Brice Prairie man.

David Schroeder has been missing since September 22nd and his family remains hopeful that he will be located. The LaCrosse County Sheriff's Department is asking hunters to be extra vigilant during the upcoming gun deer season by checking out any unusual items they see in the woods.

You can contact the Sheriff's Department if you have any information you think is relevant or find anything you think could be related to his disappearance. The Lacrosse Sheriff non emergency number is 785-5942.
