

Onalaska Man Found Guilty In Friend's Death

Friday, 16 November 2012 10:40

Prosecutors say 29 year old Robert Buckles was driving drunk, with a blood alcohol level of more than twice the legal limit, when he lost control of his truck in Vernon County last August. His friend was thrown from the truck and died at the scene.

The jury trial started on Monday afternoon. Sentencing is scheduled for January 2nd.
