

Same Day Voter Registration Could Go Away

Monday, 26 November 2012 10:57

The issue has gotten more attention recently after Walker said in a speech earlier this month in California that he thinks it would be easier on election clerks if voters could not register at the polls.

Walker says his comments have gotten a disproportionate amount of attention. He says he is focused on his economic agenda in the Legislature next year, which includes passing a new two-year budget.