

Governor Scott Walker says he would sign a bill that ends same day voter registration in Wisconsin. We asked La Crosse County Clerk, Ginny Denkmeyer, if she's in favor of the governor's wishes.

\(Click for Audio\)

But she says if this goes into provisional voting, which could happen, it will cost a lot more paperwork and headaches for the poll workers than just same day voter registrations. Walker said he won't make doing away with it a priority.