

Contact Leads To Jail For Sparta Pair

Tuesday, 11 December 2012 15:49

2 Sparta guys, told by the court not to have contact with each other, are in jail...after having contact with each other. Sparta cops stopped a car in Sparta after observing several traffic violations. The driver was identified as 30 year old Henrey Riley of Sparta, and his passenger, 26 year old Matthew Boesen from Sparta had prior arrests and were released with bond conditions that prohibited them from having contact with each other. Both were arrested for Bail Jumping.

At the time of the traffic stop, Riley showed signs of impairment that appeared to be related to drug usage. He was cited for operating a motor vehicle while impaired.

The two may face additional charges after officers discovered several prescription medications in their possession for which they did not appear to have a valid prescription.