

Wisconsin and Minnesota were hit hard by whooping cough in 2012, with Minnesota reporting its biggest number of cases since World War II. Jo Foellmi (FELL-ME) with the La Crosse County Health Department says it all starts with a young child's immunizations.

[WHOOP 3 is unavailable]

Wisconsin also led the nation in reported cases of whooping cough this year.