

If drunk driving laws are re-written this year to make them stiffer, should they apply to everyone that gets nailed for a D.U.I or O.W.I.? Not everyone says State Representative, Jill Billings.

\(Click for Audio\)

Billings says first time offenders in La Crosse County go through the O.W.I. court and most of them do not re-offend. She says any new rules would be for those that drink and drive continuously.