

Two local democratic lawmakers greeted Republican Governor Scott Walker during a stop in La Crosse Thursday. After a half an hour with reporters, Senator Jennifer Shilling's take?

\(Click for Audio\)

Shilling said she has concerns with a fast moving mining bill geared toward northern Wisconsin and she wonders who will pay for an income tax cut the governor is proposing. State Rep. Jill Billings was also on hand to hear what the Governor had to say after his Tuesday night state speech.