

A Marathon County man caught with child porn while checking into the Veteran's Home in Tomah in May of last year is going to prison. 48 year old Greg Crisman of Rothschild will spend three and a half years behind bars....a good thing he said after his arrest....since if he wasn't stopped from looking at porn...he was going to kill himself.

Crisman told Fort McCoy investigators that he had to view the porn since he was molested years ago and was living a fantasy trip. Crisman said he would google the term russian bear or young models, print up the pictures and masturbate to them. He was found with over 50 images of naked children while he was checking into the Vet's home.

He also told investigators he was glad he was arrested before there would have been victims.
