

Council Races Set for April

Tuesday, 19 February 2013 21:58

Three city council races are set in La Crosse after voting in yesterday's primary. The second, third and tenth district council races held primaries. In the second district, Scott Neumeister and Dempsey Miller will face off in the April general election. In the third district, it's Nic Breidel and Ryan Cornett emerging from the primary. In the tenth district, current council member Rich Becker survives the primary and will move on to the April election to face Peg Jerome.
