

Bangor Referendum Passes

Wednesday, 20 February 2013 11:17

---

A Bangor School District referendum passed by a 60-39% margin Tuesday. Superintendent, Dave Laehn says they needed to make cash available now.

\(Click for Audio\)

Also in Whitehall, 63% of voters said yes to a new elementary school that will cost $12.5 million dollars to build and equip. Several big bonding referendums around the state Tuesday were not so lucky.