2 bills passed in Madison Thursday, co-sponsored by Democrat Steve Doyle, would provide much needed aid to Wisconsin's still struggling manufacturing industry, establishing a trade show to highlight the quality producers within our state and establish new supply chains for those businesses. He says it promotes manufacturing like the state promotes dairy.

(Click for Audio)

Doyle is now calling on his Senate colleagues to work quickly to approve the MMAKE package, and send it to the Governor to be signed into law.