

2 Wisconsin republicans are drafting a school budget plan that goes above and beyond Governor Scott Walkers. We talked to La Crosse Democrat Steve Doyle about that plan.

[REPUB 1 is unavailable]

Doyle says having both Olsen and Ellis behind the plan gives it momentum in the Senate, where the Republican majority is 18-15. Republicans also control the Assembly. Both chambers have to approve the budget before it is sent to Walker for his consideration. Doyle did not say he agrees with the plan, but he also wouldn't say their idea is dead on arrival.
