

Too Many Administrators Says Pelowski

Monday, 04 March 2013 11:00

Too many high paid administrators in Minnesota colleges. That's from State Rep. Gene Pelowski of Winona. MnSCU says executives earned those bonuses by hitting performance goals. But Pelowski says they're inappropriate considering MnSCU's record of high student debt and tuition increases. And bonuses need to go away.

[GENE 3 is unavailable]

He has repeatedly argued against the severity of past budget cuts, and says that will continue as he digs into their current budget proposals.