

Sheriff Still Seeking Suspect In Barre Mills Murders

Tuesday, 25 May 2010 21:03

No arrests, no suspect, and no definite cause of death...

Still plenty of unanswered questions in the murders of a Barre Mills couple, Dennis and Merna Koula. La Crosse County Sheriff Steve Helgeson says they're still trying to figure out when the murders occurred.

The Koulas' son discovered the bodies of his parents early Monday morning. About a dozen investigators are still searching the couple's home near the Fox Hollow golf course. Autopsy results might be available late this week.