

Looks like a rematch for a local assembly race. Two years ago democratic challenger and the head of the local red cross chapter Cheryl Hancock ran against incumbent state representative Mike Huebsch. The West Salem republican held on to his seat. If he wants to serve another two years he will have to defeat Hancock for a 2nd time. Later today Hancock is holding a news conference to announce her candidacy.