

Arcadia District Seeks $24 Mil. For Schools

Tuesday, 19 March 2013 08:46

The Arcadia School District is asking their community to pass a $24 million referendum for a new elementary and middle school building. Superintendent, Louie Ferguson in a video made for the referendum, explains where the district is stuck.

\(Click for Audio\)

A referendum looking to do the same thing failed in 2011. The question will appear on the April 2nd ballot.