

Blown Tire Leads To Crash

Friday, 29 March 2013 14:58

A blown tire led to a couple from Cashton ending up in the hospital. The accident happened just before 1 today in the Township of Sparta.

86 year old Jerome Schreier was eastbound on Highway 16, when the passenger side front tire blew. His car then slammed into and jumped a curb then continued down a ditch line until it hit a snow bank and struck a billboard post.

Schreier and his passenger, 81 year old Marcella Schreier both received non life threatening injuries and were taken to Mayo Clinic Sparta Campus.
