

Weather Forces Forest Trails to Close

Monday, 01 April 2013 14:17

The significant lack of real spring has led to some problems in at least one of La Crosse's city parks. The city has closed some trails in Hixon forest, calling conditions on the trails, "unsuitable" and saying work will be done on the trails. The city has not said for how long the trails will be closed.