

As UW-L Chancellor, Joe Gow awaits word from the state legislature on the go ahead for construction on 5 new buildings, one thought lingers in the back of his head.

\(Click for Audio\)

Besides the 5 new buildings, Gow says they may look at building a new residence hall in the next few years. He says that would be financed through housing fees.