

When the 4 public hearings on the state budget begin this week, healthcare funding is sure to get quite a bit of conversation. Congressman Ron Kind says it wouldn't have had Governor Walker taken federal funds for healthcare months ago.

\(Click for Audio\)

After the public hearings, the Republican controlled joint finance committee will then begin its process of voting on changes to the $68 billion budget.