

Seems as though support is growing for 5 bills put forward by Alma Senator, Kathleen Vinehout.

\(Click for Audio\)

She says she'll leave that window open so people can have some time to ask their local legislators to sign on. The bills are all towards frac sand mining and include more power and control to the people and local governments.