

One item on the the UW Board of Regents agenda Thursday was the approval of preliminary plans and design for the $82 million science building at UW-L. Before the Regents voted, Chancellor Joe Gow addressed the body.

\(Click for Audio\)

The Regents, who are meeting for the second day on the UW-L campus, approved the resolution.