

One of the bills State Representative Steve Doyle talked about during a legislative roundtable of health workers in the area Monday, has a sweet sounding name to it.

\(Click for Audio\)

Of the 25 states that have some type of cottage foods legislation, Doyle says Wisconsin is the only one that does not include a provision for non hazardous baked goods such as bread, cookies, and cakes.