

The medicare checks are coming. 250 dollar checks are getting sent to seniors starting today. Money that's part of the federal health care overhaul. Money that's meant to bridge the gap in Medicare part D prescription drug coverage. And something that's likely to create more than one victim.

Wisconsin AARP is among those warning seniors not to get suckered in to scammers trying to get personal information. AARP says those getting checks won't have to do anything; they'll come automatically.
