

One major concern about Governor Walker's proposed budget echoed throughout a budget hearing in La Crosse Monday night. School vouchers.

\(Click for Audio\)

La Crosse School Superintendent, Randy Nelson says the 100 or so that showed up almost all agreed that taking money from the budget for voucher schools like those in Milwaukee and Racine would not do any good for the local school system. The meeting was put together by La Crosse area state lawmakers.