Thursday, 10 June 2010 16:18

An arrest warrant goes out for a local murder. Vance Evans was shot to death outside his Tomah home in April. Yesterday, Tomah police chief Wes Revels announced that Tammy Cole will eventually be transported from her home in Illinois to Monroe county to face homicide charges. Revels says the community is relieved someone will be brought to justice for murdering the bar owner. Cops say the 46 year old Cole travelled to Tomah but returned to Illinois after killing Evans.
