

Republican Announces Challenge to Shilling

Thursday, 10 June 2010 18:03

The surprises just keep on coming in politics. This time it's a Republican willing to take on long-time La Crosse democratic state rep Jennifer Shilling in this fall's elections. It's Julian Bradley, Thursday announcing his candidacy for state assembly as a Republican. It will be the first run for office for the CenturyLink supervisor and part time UWL student. Shilling hasn't had a Republican challenger since 2002.
