

A state Assembly committee has voted to let underage drinkers be sued if they're caught using fake ID's to hoodwink bars and liquor stores into selling them alcohol. MIke Brown of the La Crosse County Tavern League says he's all for it.

\(Click for Audio\)

A similar bill is pending in the state Senate.