

Lot of fans of the Myrick Hixon Eco Park on the La Crosse city council. Council member Marilyn Wigdahl isn't one of them. Wigdahl is the lone no vote so far on a new ten year lease deal with the Eco Park. She questions the park's focus as a unique environmental educational resource for kids

\(Click for Audio\)

Wigdahl says she used to donate to the Eco-Park. Until the park decided to dump plans to have animals. Now, she's not a supporter. Full council votes on the lease next week.