

It's been about two weeks now that traffic was shutdown during the weekend on Highway 16 in front on Valley View Mall. And with detours set up, Onalaska City Engineer, Jarrod Holter says they have had some complaints about the shut down.

\(Click for Audio\)

Holter says the construction is in it's last phase and traffic could re-open by early next week. The DOT has plans to do night work on Highway 16 from the mall into La Crosse after the current project is finished.