

Immediate and critical response to a recommendation to lower the legal limit for alcohol to drive. The NTSB says .05 is better than .08 and recommends state legislatures approve the change in order to make an indent in alcohol related fatalities. La Crosse Tavern League Mike Brown says the recommendation is flawed and unnecessary

Other critics say the average blood alcohol level in traffic deaths nationwide is much higher anyway, at .16.