

Due to declining state funding, the morning milk break held in various La Crosse District schools has been scrapped. Angela Seeger with the district nutrition department says it was a tough choice to make.

\(Click for Audio\)

Students had the choice of juice or milk, proving at no cost to children on the free or reduced meal program.