

State Senator, Julie Lassa lashed out at the Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation and its board of directors during the democratic weekly radio address.

\(Click for Audio\)

Lassa says democrats are calling for a major reconstruction of the board of directors to finally give it the power and independence it needs both to ensure the effective management of the organization as well as protect the interests of Wisconsin taxpayers.